Lasting value

Hardwearing, thanks to the robust structure. Modern surfaces in formats that are always new. Never before has it been so easy to create a good atmosphere inside the home.

Easy to clean

It looks like a beautiful wooden floor, and feels just like one too. New surfaces and board formats in woodgrain decors that are true to nature give the floor an authentic appearance in line with current design trends.

At home in nature.

A person at EGGER who deals with wood every day, some for an entire career, develop a special relationship with nature. The respectful handling of this fantastic raw material is instilled in us. As far as we are concerned, there is no better material than wood when it comes to healthy living. This is why all EGGER products are based on this material. It is our choice to forego softeners or PVC during processing, and even the decor image of our laminate flooring is based on water-soluble dyes. Once you experience the atmosphere of a room with an EGGER floor you understand.
